

#204

FARABEUF*RETRACTOR

Length: 6in

Inventor: Louis Hubert Farabeuf

EST.
1800's

Retractor Farabeuf 16mm, 6in

Common Uses:

Traumatology, Thoracic Surgery, ENT, Vascular Surgery, Plastic Surgery, Gen Surgery, Pediatric Surgery, Urology, Orthopaedics, Gynaecology, Cardiac Surgery, Maxillo-Facial Surgery, Neurosurgery

Primary Properties:

- Double ended
- Flat handle
- L-Shaped Blades
- Blunt blades

Variations:

- Size: 4-3/4" (12.1cm) or 6" (15.0cm)

Function:

Farabeuf Retractor is a hand-held retractor and it allows surgeons to grasp, retract and statically hold multiple types of tissues during procedures in a broad range of surgical specialties.

Did you know?

Farabeuf is considered the founder of topographic anatomy and was one of the greatest figures of anatomy. He renewed the teaching of anatomy both at a theoretical and practical level.

